

Apply to a Child and Family Development Graduate Program

2017 - 2018

CFD Graduate Programs

- Early Childhood Transdisciplinary Education and Mental Health Certificate (EC-TEaMH Certificate)
- M.S. in Child Development (M.S. CFD)
- M.S. in Child Development with a Early Childhood Mental Health Concentration (M.S. L.P.C.C. program)

EC-TEaMH Certificate

- Professional preparation for:
 - Early childhood educators
 - Early intervention
- Focus:
 - Social emotional development
 - Young children and their families
- Graduates are qualified to apply for CA Infant/ Early Childhood Mental Health Endorsement
- Program Specifics:
 - 1 year program (15 units)
 - Designed for working professionals (classes 4:00 – 9:40 p.m.)
 - Courses credits may be applied to the M.S. in Child Development (MS CFD) degree
 - Includes practicum experience with reflective supervision
 - GRE Scores NOT required for admittance

EC-TEaMH Only

Bachelor's Degree

EC-TEaMH
(one year)

Master's in Child Development

- Focus:
 - Social and emotional development in context for children and families
 - Research, prevention, & education
- Program Features
 - Can help students move onto Ph.D. programs
 - Furthers professional expertise & credentials
- Program Specifics:
 - 2 year program (30 - 32 units)
 - Designed for working professionals (classes 4:00 – 9:40 p.m.)
- Capstone options:
 - Thesis (research)
 - Project (applied)
 - Comprehensive exam (EC-TEaMH and M.S. in Child Development material)

EC-TEaMH to M.S. Option

Concurrent M.S. and EC-TEaMH

M.S. in Child Development with Concentration in Early Childhood Mental Health: Licensed Professional Clinical Counseling Program

- Designed to prepare students who wish to pursue clinical licensure under the Board of Behavioral Sciences as a Licensed Professional Clinical Counselor (BPC4999.33)
- Prepares mental health clinicians to:
 - Support social & emotional health in children & families
 - Work with diverse individuals across the lifespan
- Program Specifics:
 - 2 year program (60 units – includes summer sessions)
 - Designed for working professionals
 - Includes reflective supervision
 - Utilizes a neuro-relational framework

Interested in Applying?

- Complete the 2 part application :
 - A university application (Cal State Apply)
 - $55 non refundable application fee
 - A department application (Interfolio)
- Due dates
 - Dec 15 for M. S. with L. P. C. C. concentration
 - March 1 for EC-TEaMH and M. S. in Child Development programs

Application Materials

- Resume/CV
- Language Background Form
- Personal statement
- Email addresses for letters of recommendation
 - At least one academic reference
 - 3 for the M.S. programs and 2 for the EC TEaMH program
- Academic Writing Sample
 - Research or literature review papers are preferred
- Transcript
- GRE scores (for M.S. programs – NOT required for the EC-TEaMH)

Questions?

Email: grad-cfd@sdsu.edu

or

call 1 (619) 594-5380

Thank you for considering our programs!

